Exterminate the Cockroach.

The cockroach acts as an insect partner of typhoid fever, typhonic plague and possibly cancer. Several years ago an epidemic of typhoid fever on a United States warship was proved to be propagated by cockroaches. In a recent issue of the London Lancet, Dr. W. Melville Davison calls attention to the fact that the cause of cancer may be an alga or vegetable micro-organism which is found in the intestines of several species of roaches.

M. E. Church

Sunday School at 9:30 a m A M. Decker, Superintendent.
Preaching Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by the pastor, subject: "Some Laws of the Kingdom." The Union service will be held at the court house beginning at 7:30 p m, Rev S F Kelley will preach the sermon.
Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 7:30; choir practice after prayer meeting.
All are cordially invited to attend these services.

E. R. Overley, Pastor.

THE CHURCHES

Christian Church.

The usual services will be held in the court house next Sunday. At the morning service the minister will preach on "Show Us The Father." The union service will be held at the hour of worship and Rev S F Kelley known and loved by everybody in the city, will deliver the sermon. It is hoped all christian people will attend. Let us give brother Kelly a great audience.

J W Ligon, Minister

Mrs. Payne Entertains

Mrs. D. C. Payne entertained Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 4, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. V. V. Anderson, of Boston, Mass.

The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and vines, the yard decked with settees and Japanese lamps, and from its position, sitting as it does upon a knoll at the curve of Depot street it was more like a little paradise than an humble home.

Mrs. A. N. Herndon assisted in receiving the guests, Mrs. H. P. Cottongim presided over the punch bowl, Miss Vickers and Mrs. Pete Kennedy served cream and cake to the following delighted guests:

Messiaimes

V. V. Anderson D. C. Payne, O Dickinson, Ottilie Hopper, Eva Kennedy, L. Sampson, J. E. Faulkner, F. D. Sampson, W. H. McDonald, J. W. Ligon, J. W. Hughes, J. D. Black, H. P. Cottongim, J. S. Miller, S. T. Davidson, Will Ager, J. R. Tuggle, P. V. Cole, G. H. May, H. C. Cole, R. W. Cole.

Dr. Anderson and wife have been away from here more than eight years, but their stay has made little change in their appearance, both look as young as they did when they left Barbourville.

A GREAT BALL GAME

(Special To The Advocate.)

Warren and Artemus played a thirteen inning game of ball on the Warren diamond on the 4th and it was one of the greatest exhibitions ever staged here. Warren had the best of the argument in the closing inning and won out 9 to 8 "Cef" Ramey went the entire route for the home team and Perkey pitched great ball for the visitors until the seventh and after three singles in succession he gave way to Carter who pitched airtight ball until the lucky 13th when Stone opened up with a neat single and was shoved to third on Foster's double and scored on Parker's single. Artemus scored one run in the first on Prosper's three bagger and Carter's single and they tucked over four more on three hits and that many errors in the fourth but Warren took the lead in the fifth on terrific batting of Perkey's benders only to have it gunned up in the sixth by Artemus after which it was a pitcher's battle royal between Ramey and Carter, and old "Cef" was right there with the goods and pitched a wonderful game considering the fact that he had just gotten in that morning from a four days trip on the train and was in no condition to work, but the boys played jam up ball behind him after the sixth and there was nothing else to do but win; the batting of little Jess Prosper for the visitors was a feature as he got five hits out six times up and one was a triple; Ramey, Kuhn, Lee, Stone and Foster all did some heavy stick work for the home team and we just had to win. A large and enthusiastic crowd was out to see the game.

Ant an Enemy of Mankind.
Ants are not only a nuisance, but are capable of transmitting disease, and some varieties are deadly. Current medical literature cites the case of a child that was left alone, sought amusement in a hill of red ants, and was stung to death. It is stated that white ants have done incalculable damage to the walls and flooring of the Smithsonian building in Washington. A few specimens that were imported from South America for experimental purposes escaped and have multiplied to countless billions.

THE ENCAMPMENT C. A. R.

The G. A. R. meet is over it was a great success. We not only pleased the old soldiers, but put our town on the map. We had in looking over the list of the names of those who contributed of their means to make this a success only ten persons. Many of you have not been called upon to give. We lack $98.67 of having enough money to square everything up. We now call upon the merchants and citizens to contribute something to this fund. There is no good reason why we should stand back and let a few people bear all this burden. Let all of us do our part. You say you want to honor the Old Soldiers and you were proud of the showing made by Barbourville. Now let us see how much you are really interested in these matters. We shall publish a list of the names in next week's issue, of all who contribute to this fund. Hand your subscription to The Mountain Advocate before next Wednesday evening. Very few of our merchants or citizens have contributed to this enterprise. This was an affair for the whole town and all who are able should willingly contribute something. We must raise $98.67 to finish paying all bills. Please come forward and help. The flags, bunting and other decorations, were kept in good shape, having been taken down and put away for future occasions.

NOTICE

Last year, through the efforts of the good people and officers of this Judicial District, composed of the counties of Knox, Whitley and McCreary, we enjoyed a fair, clean, decent election, which no one thought possible at that time, but it was accomplished and all good citizens who took part in it deserve credit.

Let us have another such election—let it be fair, clean, free from both money and whiskey.

Information comes that in the primary which is to take place August 1st, a large amount of money and whiskey will be used to influence voters in this Congressional race. It is asserted that great quantities of whiskey are ready to be sluiced into this district for the purpose of debauching the voters and thwarting the will of the people, and setting at naught the law against the use of such things in elections.

We suggest that a public meeting be held at the court house some Sunday afternoon to which all good citizens are invited; that all the ministers of the town and county be given special invitations to be present; that the officers of the County and District be urged to attend and that plans be made, committees appointed looking to the carrying out of the plans for a fair, clean and decent election.

We can have it and we must have it. The good work begun last year must be continued, we know better how to do it and we can get better results. Let us all join hands to this end.

Keeping Young.

One of the most distinguished men in America was asked to write the history of his state. He was more than seventy-five years old. His answer was that he would not care to undertake that work, as he was but little interested in anything that was in the past.—Harper's Weekly.

Teething babies always have a hard time of it when this process occurs in hot weather. They not only have to contend with painful gums but the stomach is disordered, bowels loose and the body uncomfortable. The best help you can give the little sufferer is a McGEES BABY ELIXIR. It corrects sour stomach, cools and quiets the bowels and helps digestion. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by J. Frank Hawn.—Adv.
